Motion: By Paul Thompson to approve the variance requested for 23 Spofford Street for the separation 4' to 3' from the estimated groundwater. Seconded: By Joe Crane, unanimous.

Discussion: Richdale's violation against selling Tobacco to a minor. Sarder Obaid (manager) represented Richdale's stated to the board he will reinforce his employees about selling to minors to make sure this does not happen again.

Discussion: 11 Bailey Lane, the board reviewed the letter written by Thomas Carbone dated January 9, 2006 requesting an easement be placed on the abutters property to correct the error of the system. The board disagreed with an easement and stated 11 Bailey Lane needs to come in full compliance with Title 5. Therefore, the septic system must be replaced onto its own property.

Discussion: The Landcap monitoring reports that were submitted by Hub testing were reviewed by Paul Thompson. Paul has requested for Deb to draft a letter to DEP to request a possible reduction in the landfill testing.
