

PRESS RELEASE

Saturday, July 11, 2009

On Saturday, July 11, 2009 at approximately 2:30 AM the Georgetown Police Department investigated a possible house party at 27 Nelson Avenue. As a result of the investigation fourteen (14) individuals, ages ranging from 18 to 20 years of age were found to be in possession of alcoholic beverages.

These individuals have been summonsed to appear in Haverhill District Court for being minors in possession of an alcoholic beverage. A resident of the property was also charged and summonsed to Haverhill District Court for keeping a disorderly household.

Several other individuals were observed fleeing the area and have been identified. Once the investigation is completed they will also be summonsed to Haverhill District Court on additional charges stemming from the incident.

Master Patrol Officer Scott Hatch supervised the investigation as well as Officers Derek Jones and Philip Klibansky responded to the incident.

Any questions can be forwarded to Lieutenant Donald C. Cudmore.
