Director’s Notes... Marking the end of the old year & the arrival of a brand new year, New Year’s Eve provides us with an opportunity to celebrate that important moment in time – & to connect with our family & friends as we begin the New Year together. We look forward to New Year’s Eve – although our celebrations seem to evolve each year! When our girls were young, we planned activities that we could do as a family. We spent several years traveling into Boston with our friends to see some of the First Night activities. They loved the People’s Procession with the costumed stilt walkers, the ice sculptures on the Common & the Family Fireworks but riding the roller coaster-like Green Line might actually have been their favorite part of the evening! Other years, we made dinner with our friends attempting to stay awake & watch the ball drop at midnight. On more than one occasion, only the children remained awake while certain parents rested their eyes much to the kids’ delight! One year, we’d enjoyed our trek into Boston for New Year’s Eve & then spent a leisurely morning munching stacks of apple pancakes. Morning stretched into afternoon & we decided to take the girls for some sledding down a favorite hill. The old wooden toboggan from my childhood was quickly strapped to the top of the station wagon & flying saucers filled the back along with blankets & a thermos of hot chocolate. The kids took run after run down the hill, swirling round & round on their saucers. They piled onto the toboggan together, squealing as their attempts to steer took them into piles of snow. Finally, they clambered back up to the top of the hill for some rest & hot chocolate. The afternoon sun was setting & evening stars were visible as the crescent of an early moon began to shine. The stellar alignment was the perfect back drop for one last crazy run down the hill. Both my husband & I hopped onto the toboggan with the girls. We flew down the now icy track at top notch speed, shrieking hysterically as we spilled across the snowbank but saving the hot chocolate! Talk about a head-over-heels start to the New Year! We are looking forward to heading into the New Year with all of you this year! So much to celebrate & enjoy at our new Senior Center – but no toboggan or flying saucers will be needed for the fun that we have planned! Happy New Year all the way through the year!

Holiday Thanks
Although they seemed to have arrived and departed “like the down of a thistle”, the spirit generated by the holidays continues to warm us still! The Georgetown COA is grateful to all who helped to brighten the holiday season. We send our thanks to the Georgetown Middle/High School Music Department & Food Service for nurturing our bodies and lifting our spirits with their annual breakfast & holiday concert. We thank the Friends of the Council on Aging for funding & helping with the Annual Holiday Party. The holiday goodies baked by Monica Thompson were just a delight. We thank the Council on Aging board members & volunteers who brought desserts & so many helping hands!
